Free Legal Clinic at North West Community Services

February 2026

North West Community Services is pleased to announce a new partnership with Western Sydney Community Legal Centre (WSCLC), expanding access to free legal services for the local community.

From February 2026, WSCLC will host a monthly Legal Clinic on the second Wednesday of each month, providing accessible, free legal advice to residents across our community. The clinic will operate from 10:00am to 3:30pm, with five appointments available each month.

The Legal Clinic will operate from North West Community Services Inc., 9 Park Street, Riverstone NSW, making professional legal support more accessible to individuals and families who may otherwise face barriers to accessing legal help.

The clinic can assist with a broad range of legal matters, including:

- Family law (separation, parenting, ADVOs, property, divorce and mediation)
- Criminal law (minor matters dealt with by fine or CAN)
- Traffic law (licence suspension or disqualification, minor traffic offences)
- Civil law issues, including employment, debts, credit, discrimination, neighbourhood disputes, powers of attorney, guardianship, advance care directives and more
- Aboriginal Legal Access Program
- Work Development Order (WDO) Program

This initiative reflects a shared commitment to supporting community wellbeing and ensuring people have access to timely, practical legal advice close to home.

Bookings are essential.

To make an appointment, call (02) 9627 3622.
